Doug: You know, I'd like to just close off our Sabbath school time with prayer, and then we have something very special. You know, the Bible says the last words of Jesus should be the first priority of believers to go, to teach, to meet disciples, to baptize, and we're going to enter into a baptism. So, let's just have prayer right now.

Start in Genesis. The first mention of the original sabbath is in Genesis 2:2-3. The word "sabbath" is generally translated as "rest." This is a source of some confusion, as many don't realize that the word simply means to stop. This isn't the kind of rest we need after a good workout. It's more like a musical rest, where no notes are played.
